

Rio Bossa Nova

Bossa Nova is a Brazilian musical style created between 50' and 60'. The movement starts in Rio de Janeiro. The songs reflected the beauty of the city on the 60's.

Tom Jobim, João Gilberto, João Donato, Nara Leão, Vinicius de Moraes are some of the famous names that have to face this movement. With the consolidation of bossa nova, points of Rio de Janeiro, mainly between Copacabana and Ipanema, became famous. Songs like Girl from Ipanema, "Chega de Saudade", "Samba de um nota só" are sung and played in various corners Rio.
