

Surfing Florianópolis – South Brazil

What about an unforgettable experience in the most incredible beaches of Brazil. This is an incomparable surfing experience in Florianópolis, one of the most charming city in the country, famous world wide for its waves, for the beauty, joy and hospitality of its inhabitants, for the easiness of the most varied kinds of extreme sports and adventure and for its night life! Florianópolis is known as the Brazilian surf capital.

The city is an oceanic island, with about 80 kilometers of extension and more than 100 beaches surrounding it, from which we have carefully chosen the most special and various ones when it comes to surfing, visual and nature.

Mole Beach is our starting point, it is the beach where the surf camp is based, the nearest one from all others and the one that has the most constant waves throughout the year.

Besides Mole Beach, the instructors will also take you to other great surf points of the island. They'll also take you to the best bars and clubs of the city, and make sure you will have a lot of fun !!

If you are already a surfer or want to learn how to surf so much, that's an amazing opportunity.

Come have fun and take some waves in this wonderful country.

The Surf Camp takes place in Mole Beach Park Hotel, a 80 thousand square meters property that goes from Lagoa da Conceição edge to Mole Beach. Mole Beach Park hotel leisure infrastructure features: outdoor swimming pool, warmed pool, dry and steam sauna, tennis square, soccer field, gym, game room and canoeing and kayaking.

Every apartment and cabin has air-conditioning, cable TV, telephone, electronic safe, minibar and box spring bed.

Suggested extension:

This package can be combined with our other Surf Camp option in Praia do Rosa, just 2 hours drive from Florianópolis. Praia do Rosa (Rosa Beach) has perfect waves for surfing, sand dunes, blue-green lagoons, Rainforests, crystal white beaches. This is an ideal place to relax and get in touch with nature. Access is a little difficult as most roads are not yet paved, but the upside is that the beach never gets crowded.

The surf camp takes place at Vida Sol e Mar beach Village. Perched on a hillside this eco-resort overlooks a beautiful fresh water lagoon and the perfect surf beach, within a natural conservation area.

Amongst its lodgings are 7 gorgeous new villas, all a short walk from the beach. Some villas have their own small outdoor pool (Itadega and Gaviota), others have an outdoor hot tub (Sabia and Gaviao). All have use of the hotel pool (with limited loungers), and on the beach, the hotel's chairs, parasols and towels.
